

The People We Call Home

Words to Stay With

Collection 18

10 quotations · English tracing · 14 pages

Making this book yours

Consider care and shared everyday life without defining family only by blood.

One sentence at your pace

Look at the illustration, read the quotation, trace the grey models and write in your own hand. Start anywhere. You may skip a line or leave a different thought.

Print and bind

Use A4 portrait at actual size (100%). For double-sided printing, flip on the long edge: seven sheets per book. Single-sided printing uses fourteen sheets. Bind on the left with staples or rings. This file is not imposed for folded booklet printing.

Try one page first

Print page 4 to check the two grey models and guide lines. If they are too faint, turn off toner-saving mode and try normal print quality. The line below should measure 10 mm.

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam, be it ever so humble,
there's no place like home.

John Howard Payne

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.

After the last word,
your own words continue.

What act of care would you like to offer someone you live with?
